

Afterthought

Rapper · Songwriter · Producer

Afterthought is a San Francisco rapper, producer, songwriter, and community activist. His music blends hip-hop, jazz, R&B, and soul into a sound that is both forward-thinking and nostalgic. Aft's lyrics draw from his own experiences in the foster care and adoption system and focus on family, community, and collective action. He has performed over 100 shows across the Bay Area and regularly tours in LA and NYC with his collective "Family Not A Group" and his band, the Top Chefs.
